Dear Friends:

I received your letter and the extended invitation and was more than glad to know you people had not forgotten me, I still think of the many happy school day which I spent there.
I can't help but always think of the Carlisle Indian School how much good and benefit I got from there and I know there is much good done there to the young Indian Men and Women from all parts of the world.

Now there is no doubt but what I would like to be there at the Commencement but I am very sorry to state that I don't think I can attend it this year as I am and Page Interpreter and can not leave my work and my vacation does not come until August so therefore I don't think I can come, but please give my extended Greetings to all my Classmates and all the Graduates of 1912.

Every week I receive the "Garbale Arrow" and I always am glad to get it and see what the students are doing it gives me great me great pleasure to sit down and read it for my past time.

This is all the encouragement I have to give to the girls and boys is to study hard and accomplish for all they can while they are at school so when they go home they can tell the old folk and bring them more out in to civilization those that need it!

I will now close giving my best regards to the superintendant, students and also the employe.

Yours truly

Boelund Remouthy
ex student.

Orlando Kenworthy, who is living in Pawhuska, Oklahoma, states that he is at present working as a clerk in a store. He has at different times been an interpreter for the McGuire Land Co., and for the Catholic Mission.

Interpereter and Baker.

Orlando L. Kenworthy, interpreter for the missionary, Pawhuska, Oklahoma, wrote to Mr. Olson a few days ago for a fine cake recipe, as December 28th is his baby's birthday and the father and mother are going to give him a birthday dinner. Orlando is a good baker, as he learned his trade here, but he has no recipe quite good enough, he thinks for his boy's birthday.

Orlando also sent a nice Christmas greeting to THE LEADER, as well as a three years' subscription.
