

Richard Rush, an ex-student, is now located at Hominy, Okla. He writes to the Superintendent:

“You will have to excuse me for writing to you, but I know I would not be backward if I could only see you once or twice. I have a stepson who is going to school there: I told him it was a good school for I went there seven years. I have been back here now thirteen years. I would like to come up there sometime while the boy is there.”

Dear Sir:-

Of course you have to excuse me for writing to you for I know I would not be backward if I only saw you once or twice.

I have a step-son that is going to school there and I am more than glad he is there.

His mother died about a couple of yrs ago and he told me he was going to school up there.

~~A man named so was a~~ good school for I went there and stayed nearly seven yrs.

I have been back now
thirteen yrs last July.
All of the ex-students are
well and doing well.

We have had a cold
spell for about four or five days.

I would like to come up
there some time while the boy is there.

Well Mr. Friedman I must close for this time
and excuse my mistakes.

Yours truly,

Richard Rust.

P.S. Happy New Year
to you and the Students.
