Dear Peter:

I have your letter of the 8th instant, asking for the money which is due you. In December, 1910, a check for One hundred forty-eight dollars, thirty-four cents ($148.34) as drawn in your favor and sent to you at Bay Shore, Michigan. This check has never been presented to the bank, here, for payment. Did you ever get this check? If not, do you know where it might be found? If this is lost we can have the bank stop payment of it, and send you another check, for the same amount, but you will have to first fill out some papers, which I will mail you when I hear from you again.

I inclose a check for Twenty-one dollars, twenty cents ($21.20) which is the interest on this One hundred forty-eight dollars, thirty-four cents ($148.34) since 1910.

If you do not understand what is in this letter, I want you to take it to your employer, whoever he may be, and have him explain it to you. I want you also to keep me informed of your address so that I can reach you, by letter, at any time.

Mr. Dickey, the outing agent, will be in the neighborhood of Trenton April first and I think it will be best for him to see you at that time and help you make out the papers so that you can get your money from the bank.

Sir,

December 1st, 1910 check No. 12188 in the sum of $148.34 in favor of Peter Wakejoo was mailed to him closing his account. His address at that time was Bay Shore, Mich. Nothing since was heard from the boy or this check until March 8th, inst, when he writes from Trenton N.J. "please send my money what I have got there, I need it bad". The check being outstanding and unpaid, the proper form was sent him to make application for a duplicate check. He now advises he is unable to give the bond required. Please advise if this requirement will be waived in his case. A prompt reply is requested as he advises he is now married and out of employment and urgently in need of this money.

My dear Mr. Lipps:

There is enclosed herewith for proper reply to the writer, a letter dated March 18, 1915, received from Elery Robbins, Esquire, 111 East State Street, Trenton, N. J., with reference to $148.34, due Peter Wakejoo, on account of lost check 12188, dated December 1, 1910.

In order that the money covered by the lost check may be paid to Peter Wakejoo, it will be necessary for him to furnish this Office with an affidavit, giving his name and residence in full, describing the lost check, showing his interest therein, detailing the circumstances attending the loss thereof, and stating what action, if any, has been taken to stop the payment thereof. As the amount involved is over $50, he should also furnish a bond of indemnity on form 5-266, affixing thereto 50 cents in revenue stamps. As soon as these papers have been properly completed and submitted to this Office, immediate steps will be taken to have the depository on which the check was drawn pay the amount thereof to Peter Wakejoo.

As Mr. Robbins states that Peter is out of employment, please give this matter your immediate attention.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of Peter Wakejoo vs United States Indian School at Carlisle, Pa.

I have had some communication with O. H. Lipps, Supervisor in charge at Carlisle, Pa., and he tells me that this matter "Has been referred to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs." I am therefore writing to you. I understand that the school owes to Peter Wakejoo the sum of $148.34, and that there is no dispute about that fact. It seems that a check was sent to him, dated Dec. 1st, 1910, which communication and check were lost, and that he never received the same, and that the check has never been returned to the bank account of that institution. It seems to me that this is a very great hardship which is being worked against this Indian boy, who is now out of employment, to keep him waiting all of these years for this money, when the debt is not disputed, through no fault of his.

I hope that you will hustle this matter through, and not put it off and delay it, giving everything else on the calendar preference.

Please let me hear from you promptly with remittance.

Yours truly,

My dear Mr. Lipps:

Answering your letter dated March 17, 1915, you are advised that the Office cannot waive the requirement of furnishing a bond of indemnity to cover the issuance of a duplicate check in lieu of lost check No. 12188, dated March 1, 1910, for $148.34, in favor of Peter Wakejoo. Before a duplicate check can be approved, it will be necessary for Mr. Wakejoo to furnish an affidavit of loss of the original check and a bond of indemnity in accordance with the requirements.

My Friend,

I am just in receipt of advice from the Indian Office, that it will be necessary for you to furnish an affidavit concerning the loss of the original check, also that the bond would be required. Our Mr. Dickey outing agent will be in your territory April 1st and will call on you and help you to get fixed up according to requirements. I suggest that you wait until he calls to see you. Of course if you have paid Mr. Robbins a fee and want to have him look after the matter you can do so.

There is no occasion however for you to employ a lawyer to secure this money. It is my duty to see that you get it and I will see that you get it as soon as possible. You would have received your money long ago had we known where you were. There is nothing in the office files to show where you were since you deserted from school in 1905.

Peter Wakejoo deserted from this school, leaving his cutting home where he had been placed, Sept. 24th, 1905. Nothing was heard of him from that date until March 8th, 1915 when he was out of employment and wrote for his money from Trenton N.J. In the interval two attempts were made to get his money to him, Dec. 1st, 1910 check for the amount 148.34 was mailed to his home address Bay Shore, Mich. Check No. 12188. Neither check nor letter of transmittal was returned to this office. Sept. 23rd, 1913 a communication was again addressed to him requesting that he advise his correct address as we desired to close out accounts of pupils no longer enrolled at school.

Dear Sir:---

Mr. Peter Wakejoo has applied to me for assistance to help him collect from you an indebtedness which as I understand you owe to him, and which also as I understand you remitted to him once, but it appears that the check went astray.

He is ready to make oath that he has not the check, that he never received it, and that he does not know anything of its whereabouts.

You have sent him a form of bond, requiring a bondman to indemnify you against possible loss from the missing check. I suppose that your plan then will be to send him another check.

You can easily appreciate the hardship to a man like himself, of getting a bondman to be surety for him in such a matter and to such an extent.

I wondered if you would not send me another check for this indebtedness, making it payable to him, and then instruct your bank not to honor the former check?

Please let me hear from you in this regard, and let me know if some simpler method cannot be adopted than to require this helpless, friendless man to give a bond.

I await your prompt reply.

In re Peter Wakejoo.

I am in receipt of your favor of 17th inst., and I will not inform my client that there is no occasion for him to have legal assistance in this matter. The fact that your institution has owed him $148.34, since Dec. 1st, 1910, and that during all this time he has been unable to get this money, the justice of his claim being admitted and no fault of his being charged, is quite proof enough that he ought to have some legal aid, and I propose to help the matter along.

I enclose herewith papers belonging to Peter Wakejo which you sent him some time ago. Peter has been unable to find any person who would vouch for him is the cause of the delay.

You will notice the Justice has not filled the blank completely as there were some questions which he did not know. There is also space for a second bondsman but Peter is unable to get further security.

You will please

Peter's money is in the

DUPLICATE CHECKS AGAINST INDIVIDUAL INDIAN MONEYS ON DEPOSIT IN BANKS DESIGNATED AS DEPOSITARIES FOR SUCH FUNDS.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
Washington, May 3, 1911.

To Disbursing Officers of the Indian Service.

The following revised regulations governing the issuance of duplicate checks against bank accounts of individual Indians should be carefully observed and strictly complied with in every case:

1. Immediately upon the loss of a check which has been drawn on a depository for Indian moneys by any disbursing officer of the Indian Service, or the check of an individual Indian which has been approved by any such disbursing officer, the owner should, in writing, in order to protect his interests, notify the bank on which the check is drawn of the fact of such loss, stating the name of the Indian who signed the check, the name of the superintendent who approved it, and giving, if possible, the date, number, and amount of the check, and requesting that payment of the same be stopped.

2. In order to procure the issue of a duplicate check, the owner of the lost one, or his successor in interest, must furnish the disbursing officer, who drew or approved the original check, with an affidavit giving the name and residence of the applicant in full, describing the lost check and its indorsements, showing his interest therein, detailing the circumstances attending the loss, and stating what action, if any, has been taken to stop payment thereon. The affidavit must be sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes.

3. If the amount of the lost check exceeds $50, the applicant will be required to furnish a bond in the form hereinafter prescribed, and such bond must be submitted to the Indian Office for approval, together with the duplicate check which it is proposed to issue. If individual sureties are furnished on the bond they must make affidavit in accordance with the form hereinafter prescribed.

4. If the amount of the original check does not exceed $50, the disbursing officer will, upon receipt of such affidavit and request for the issuance of a duplicate, ascertain from the bank whether the original has been paid or any attempts made to collect it, and if satisfied that the original check was lost or destroyed and has not been found, he will draw a duplicate check and submit it, together with the affidavit and his report in the premises, to the Indian Office for the approval of the Commissioner.

5. In event of the loss of a check which was drawn or approved by a disbursing officer who is dead or no longer in the service, or which was signed by an Indian who is dead or can not be located, the affidavit and bond required prior to the issuance of a duplicate check will be forwarded to the Indian Office for approval, and if found satisfactory the depository will be instructed to pay the amount to the claimant submitting the original letter of instructions in lieu of the missing check to the Auditor for the Interior Department for use in the settlement of the disbursing officer's accounts and the balancing of the depository accounts.

6. No duplicate for any amount will be issued until after thirty days from the date of the original check.

Respectfully,

R. G. VALENTINE,
Commissioner.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING BOND.

The foregoing form of bond must be executed in accordance with the following general instructions:

1. The penalty of the bond should be in even dollars and at least double the amount of the lost check, but in no case less than one hundred dollars.

2. This bond may be guaranteed either by a surety company or by individual sureties. If by the latter, they must be two in number and citizens and residents of the United States. When a surety is a woman it must be stated that she is single, as a married woman will not be accepted as surety. In cases where the payee or party in interest is not a citizen of the United States, the bond may be acknowledged by the principal before a United States minister, charge, consul, vice consul, or commercial agent. The official seal, where there is one, should in all cases be affixed, and where there is none this fact should be made known and attested.

3. A seal must be attached to each signature. When required by the laws of the State in which the bond is executed, the seal must be of wax or wafer.

4. Corporation as principal.—If a corporation is the principal, the bond must be signed for the corporation by the proper officer, thus: "The _____ (giving name of corporation), by _____ (the authorized officer)," and the seal of the corporation must be affixed. A copy of the resolution of the board of directors showing authority for the officer to execute the bond on behalf of the corporation, certified to be correct by the secretary of the board (who, for this purpose, must be some other officer than the officer authorized to execute the bond), under the seal of the corporation, must be returned with the bond, and must show whether the action was taken at a regular or special meeting of the board; if the latter, that all the directors were notified of the time and place of meeting, and that a quorum was present.

5. Unincorporated companies, etc., as principal.—Where an unincorporated company, society, lodge, or association is the principal, a copy of a resolution of the proper authorities, under seal (if there be one), authorizing an officer or officers to execute the bond, must be attached thereto. If the company has no seal, the resolution should be certified as correct by a notary public or other competent officer under his seal.

6. Miscellaneous.—If the party in interest is an individual doing business under a company title, he must state in his affidavit relating to the lost check that he is the sole owner of the business, and must execute the bond individually as sole owner of the company named. Where a copartnership is doing business under a company title, the affidavit must be signed by at least two members of the firm and must name the member who is authorized to execute the bond. If a firm is the party in interest, the names of the individual members should be inserted as the principals of the bond, thus: "John Jones and James Smith, composing the firm of Jones and Smith," and the bond should be signed by each of them.

7. The post-office address, including street and number, if any, of each party who signs the bond, must be given.

To the Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir,

Referring to Office letter dated March 25th, 1915 concerning the issuance of a duplicate check in lieu of lost check No. 12188 dated March 1st, 1910 for 148.34 in favor of Peter Wakejoo who also is the depositor, I have the honor to respectfully advise, the outing agent Mr. Dickey has called to see this boy on several occasions and endeavored to secure the bond as required by the office, but without success. The boy is located near Newtown, Penna. no longer connected with the school, working among strangers. He is urgently in need of the money and has consulted an attorney Mr. Ellery Robbins to aid him in securing it. I wrote both Mr. Robbins and the boy that we were taking the necessary steps to secure a duplicate check. However since the Office advises no duplicate check will be approved until the proper bond is furnished, and the boy advises he cannot furnish the bond, I am compelled to ask, how is this boy to receive his money?

Very respectfully,

Mr. O. H. Lipps,

My dear Mr. Lipps:

Answering your letter dated June 21, 1915, you are advised that the Regulations applicable in the case of lost checks drawn on individual Indian money are based on the requirements of the Treasury Department in the case of payment of amounts of lost checks drawn by Disbursing Officers against Government funds. The requirement is not considered unreasonable, and the Office can see no way by which the money may be paid except upon compliance with the regulation. Furthermore, it would not be fair to the payer, the depository on which the check was drawn, or to this Office to authorize the payment of the amount without sufficient security as indemnity in case the original check was cashed.

Very truly yours,

Second Assistant Commissioner.

My Friend,

I have written the office fully in regard your money and am advised that there is no other way to secure it except by complying with all the requirements of the bond. This means that you will have <sup>two</sup> ~~an~~ persons sign your bond in the sum of $300.00. The bond send me by Mr. Dickey will not do since it was for the amount of the lost check only whereas it should have been for double the amount and also signed by another person. Have you ever written your people at home to learn if any one there received the original check? or if you could not secure two persons there willing to execute your bond?. I am enclosing herewith another blank bond and hope you may be able to comply with all the rules or requirements as printed on it. This is the only way you can secure a duplicate check and receive your money.

If you have no friends willing to sign the bond the only other way is to apply to a bonding company in Trenton to secure a bond.

Your friend,

W.H.M.

Farmers Trust Company,

Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:

The Office has had considerable correspondence with the Superintendent of the Carlisle Indian School relative to the loss of check No. 12188, dated March 1, 1910, for $148.34, drawn on the Merchants National Bank, Carlisle, Pa., in favor of Peter Wakejoo, and signed by Moses Friedman, Superintendent. As the Merchants National Bank, against which the original check was drawn, has gone out of existence, and funds therein deposited to the credit of individual Indians were taken over by the Farmers Trust Company, the matter is referred to you.

Mr. Wakejoo has furnished an affidavit covering the loss of the original check and a bond of indemnity signed by himself as principal and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, Md., as surety. The Superintendent of the Carlisle School has been directed to supply you with Mr. Wakejoo's address.

In accordance with the Regulations dated May 3, 1911, governing such cases, you are hereby authorized to pay to Peter Wakejoo $148.34, the amount of lost check No. 12188, submitting this letter to the Auditor for the Interior Department for use in balancing the disbursing officer's account and the balancing of the depository account.

Dear Sir,

Replying to your favor of the 10th, relative to bond of Peter Wakejoo, I have to advise the bond was returned by the Indian Office first account no revenue stamp being attached, again by reason of change in the depository.

The Office however has finally been satisfied and they have directed the Farmers Trust Co. to make payment. You will receive draft from them direct. Interest in the sum of $3.35 has accumulated by reason of this outstanding check. I am enclosing two checks to close this off the books, one in favor of Mr. Miller who advanced the money necessary to purchase documentary stamp which please have Wakejoo sign and return, the other in favor of himself closing the account.

I desire to thank you for your assistance in this case, and beg to remain,

Dear Sir:-

Re: Bond for Peter Wakejoo.

I am herewith enclosing the bond, properly executed, in the sum of $300.00. I am forwarding this to you at the request of Mr. Wakejoo, together with an order from him to have the check forwarded to me. This is done in view of the fact that Mr. Wakejoo has not paid for the bond, and it will also be necessary for me to go to the bank with him to have it cashed and get the cost of the bond.

Thanking you for your courtesy in this matter,
I remain,

Very truly yours,

Ralph Hulse

Dear Sir:-

Re: Bond for Peter Wakejoo.

It is our intention to have the bond issued to Mr. Peter Wakejoo, of Trenton, New Jersey, so he may secure the sum of One Hundred and Forty Eight Dollars and some cents, for which he claims a check was sent and lost. We realize that the department is very careful in the preparation of these bonds, and I am therefore forwarding it to you, and would ask that you have it filled out in accordance with the custom in such matters, and when this is done, we will execute the same.

Also forward me a full description of the check, Date, and the exact amount, so we can embody this in the affidavit which Mr. Wakejoo will have to take in order to secure the bond.

Thanking you for your courtesy, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Ralph Hulse.
