INDORSEMENTS

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

Joseph Esaw writes from Pawnee, Okla., that he is in business and doing well. 1261

Through a letter to his friend,
Stella Skye, Joseph B. Esaw states
they are having real spring weather in Oklahoma. He is busy attending to some allotment affairs.
He also states that Mr. Stacey Matlock and a cousin of his are in Washington and expect to visit Carlisle on their way home. Joe hasn't decided yet what to do, but will probably play base-ball with the Pawnee nine this summer. 1909
