INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Patron, wife of Presbyterian minister she is a refined, educated, christian lady, kind, gentle manners, says Ruth is very unsatisfactory, has an ugly disposition, self-willed, very impertinent at times, does not like to be instructed or corrected. She's hard to get up in the morning, can do fairly well when she tries. She has been a great care and annoyance. She has tried to help the girl and has gotten nothing in return for her kindness but rudeness and impudence. She is not willing to keep her longer but wishes to have her recalled. She entered school Nov. 1st attends regularly. Teacher says she is up to grade. Ruth would not promise to do better, she should be transferred to a farm home, and not allowed to return to Carlisle until April. Such a girl should never be allowed to have the privileges of the Outing again.

Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Patron says: - Ruth was transferred to her from Mrs. Thompson Port Deposit Md. for bad conduct June 3rd (Sat). On Mon. she broke out with Measles and was sick in bed for a week. Dr. called for her. (Light form)

Patron says: - She is lazy, very indifferent, does not try. She is so little help that unless she improves she does not care to keep her. Her conduct has improved since she came to her.

Ruth likes her home and promises to do the best she can.
