Dear Sir:

I am sorry I did not signed my name on the blank which I
sent you some time a-
go. I thought I would signed my name after I got through giving
some information of myself but I never did
I closed the envelope
and sent it off.

After wards I thought about it, but it was too late.

And I intended to write to you and tell
you about the blank
who it was from

but I did not.

I am so glad you have sent me the notice asking me what was my name, and also sending me the envelope.

I will be very glad to tell you. My name is Fred Tomasso and I left Carlisle school in 1906 but I still remember the dear Carlisle and my school mates.

I am still getting along well and doing my farming very nicely.

I am raising some nice corn just now, and in about a week or two I will plant my wheat to.

I will close now. I am yours,

Fred Tomasso.
