A very interesting letter from George Daley to Mr. Friedman contains the information that he has fully regained his health and that he is now employed by the Sante Fe railroad in their round house at Gallup, N. M. He says that other ex-students of Carlisle are also employed in different capacities by the same railroad and earning from $50 to $60 a month.

My dear friend Mr Friedman -

I will write a few lines thinking some one might like to hear from this part of the country. I raise stock and beside have a small farm which they called irrigate farmer. My father has a ranch for the stock of sheep and cattle. of course I have been there at the ranch to taken care of the herd very often. It is little far away about 12 or 13 miles from home.

This is how I run my work always. When I came home from the ranch I had to work helped my father on a farm.

I didn't spend very much of my time except on Sunday I go to church when I am home. The month last of the February its so very beautiful gave us much of snow we ever had last year.

I Thank very much for the Carlisle Indian School had done for me.

Very truly Yours
