Dear Sir:

I had a letter from you on the day of Dec 7, 1912

I was very glad to get your letter and also the Christmas card and the card you wanted me to fill up.

I have several letters from you but I never have time to fill the blanks.

Because I never stay home I am all ways
away from home.

And so when I get home I find the letters
which you sent it to me!

The reason I did not fill the blanks
because I did not have time to fill it.

As I was acting Dist. Governor this last year here at home and so I have to stay home
I was very busy all the time have meetings
one thing to another.

I suppose you have my name in the book
yet. I see the way you address it Francisca Garcia.
