Superintendent Winnebago Agency
Winnebago, Neb.

Dear Sir:--

I am informed by Mr. Davis, Superintendent of the Genoa Indian School that Lucy Decora enrolled there in 1914 and has another year before completing her term of enrolment. It will be necessary therefore, to return Lucy to Genoa, which I will do as soon as Mr. Davis places a ticket here for her use. According to the new regulations, Lucy cannot enrol at any other non-reservation school until she has completed the course at the Genoa school. It is not enough that she complete her term of enrolment there; she must finish the course.

Will you please give the above information to Mrs. Frank Beaver who sent Lucy to Carlisle.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

My dear Mrs. Beaver:-

Your daughter Lucy Decora, left here Monday evening and had arrived at Genoa before your letter of the 27th inst reached me. Under the government regulations, Lucy was ineligible for enrolment at this school as she had not completed the course at the Genoa School. We were obliged to send back to Genoa, with Lucy, three other girls, Piegans, who had not completed the course at Genoa, because the rules are enforced very strictly now.

Lucy, while here, proved herself a very desirable pupil and there is nothing to prevent her return to Carlisle after she has completed the prescribed course at Genoa.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.
