Mr. Friedman,

I will take my time of writing a letter to you this afternoon. But simply to inform you that I am well at present.

I have nothing to say to you just now but later you will hear from me again. I thought I'd ask you if you can send me another book of Red man. also program of this year's. I always like to hear all about the doings of Carlisle.

I like the arrow very much, also send me

the pictures of Carlisle graduates
This will be all, so I will close now.

From your affectionate friend
Louis W. Pierce

hoping to hear from you soon,
