Mr. R. H. Pratt,

Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

I herewith enclose a notice of the sale of the A. J. Hrndrickson farm near Lawrenceville next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. I wish you would speak to anyone whom you think would be interested in this sale, and let us find, if we can, several purchasers in order that the property may bring all it is reasonably worth. I feel that each creditor should be interested in the outcome of this sale and trust you will look around for a good buyer.

Yours very truly,

Fergus A. Dennis, C.

MORRISVILLE, PA., April 22, 1904. 190

R. H. Pratt, Supt. Indian Industrial School, Carlisle, Pa.

Dear sir:

Your claim for services of Stephen Silverheels due from William Simpson, was duly received and presented to the sheriff. I find, however, that this is not a preferred wage claim on account of the time which has elapsed since the services were performed. It cannot, therefore, be paid until after the other judgment creditors are satisfied.

At the time I wrote you I presumed it was a preferred claim, not thinking how much time had elapsed since he had left.

I will do all in my power, however, to collect this claim and upon upon collecting it will remit as requested.

All of the personal property of Mr. Simpson was levied upon and sold under an execution issued upon judgment with waiver held by the Odd Fellows of Doylestown. This personal property was not sufficient to satisfy their judgment.

Hoping we will be able to secure this amount before the matter is entirely adjusted, I am,

Very truly yours,

Dict. LRB
RLB.

R. H. Pratt, Supt. of Indian Industrial School, Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Your communication of April 11, to William Simpson, regarding the wages of Stephen Silverheels has just been handed me.

Mr. Simpson has left his home and his whereabouts is at the present unknown. Your claim, however, is a preferred claim and you are entitled to payment out of the proceeds of the sheriff's sale of his effects to be held on Tuesday, Apr. 19.
If you will kindly make out a statement of your claim and send it to me, I will see that the amount is paid you out of said proceeds as required by law.

We are not aware what has become of Mr. Simpson, but fears are entertained that his mind has become unbalanced.

You need look no further regarding your claim except to have the exact amount as I have the matters in charge and will see that you are paid.

Very truly yours,

Dict. LRB
RLB.

A. S. Ely,

Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Replying to yours of the 26th ult., I would state that Mr. and Mrs. Simpson are willing to make an effort to pay the Seephen Silverheels claim a little at a time. I think they will give a judgment note which can, if thought necessary, be entered up. Their earnings are somewhat limited, consequently their payments will be small, but as the claim is not a large one, can soon be wiped up.

I have written to the sheriff requesting the returning of the statement submitted, which I will forward to you.

Very truly yours,

Dict. L.
