Mr. Adam Spring,

Rochester, N.Y.

My dear Adam:

I know you will be surprised to hear from me but I can't keep from writing to you to let you know what I am and that I am here in the Outing Office at the desk that Miss Ely used to occupy.

Your letter of the 17th instant stating that you would be here for Commencement came to my desk for reply so here it is. I am glad you are coming. Your old friends here will be glad to see you. We are expecting General and Mrs. Pratt to be here, too. We will have an old-time reunion. We are very busy getting ready to receive the guests.

Your friend,
