After leaving Carlisle, which is the best school I have attended, and with the help of the Cutting System, gained more real experience than I could any other way.

and as a more reservation school it helps a fellow to forget the lower stage of life and helps to lift up in spite of ones self.

The higher professions of life are the most honored, and Ranching seems to be a small item. But when one tries to follow the highest & honest efforts in any business perhaps it is good.
