Mr M. Friedman

Carlisle, Penn.

Sir

Your favor of Dec 7 1912 received today contents noticed.

I am sending you by this day mail the information requested.

Referring to your custom of sending letters of Christmas. I see where I have missed
several numbers.

The fact that you are at the head of that school & father of so many Indians.

I would deem it a favor if you would not consider me one of your children. reasons are many.

I fail to see where such false reports should reach you concerning Carlisle students in this state.

Trusting that the information contained here in is what you are seeking.

I am

C. H. Spinks

Department of the Interior.
