Married as soon as I left Carlisle, and went to house keeping.

9. Tell me anything else of interest connected with your life:

my husband attended school at Albuquerque and then finished learning the tailor trade in Phoenix school - he then worked in Phoenix at his trade, about five years. We came here where we stayed until about a year ago, he had a butches shop here about four years. he was working at his trade in Phoenix when he took sick, and after he died I came back here with my children. We have had three children two boys and one girl - the girl died April 24th 1910. My oldest boy is six years and the baby ten months.
