Wheaton, Minn., Dec. 23, 1911.

Dear Sir:

I received your latter this morning and was very much pleased to be included in your list of returned students.

The training I received at Carlisle, with the experience I have had since leaving there, is now my chief asset. For a few years after returning from Carlisle I worked on farms and for the last four years I have been employed as foreman in the Weekly Footprints office. Altho I have not amassed a fortune or been elected President of the United States, I believe am holding my own place in this community.

Thanking you for your latter and greetings, I extend to you and Carlisle my best wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Very respectfully,

Joseph R. Brown
