

John H. Elkface, an ex-student, is now living at Shield, North Dakota, and working at his trade of carpenter. He is married and has a little girl. He says he is trying to do what Carlisle taught him when he was a school boy. He says there are several Carlisle boys living near his home, and all are doing well. He writes: "THE ARROW is my friend as long as I live." He wishes to be remembered to all of his old friends, and especially the cooks, among whom he worked while at Carlisle.
