Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

These patrons are quite old and very kind. Work is not hard but particular as to how it is done.

Mr. Sickles wishes a large strong boy to do field work during this summer. Only one of experience is wanted. He is willing to pay from 15 to 16 dollars per month if he gets the right kind of boy.

Mr. Sickles is quite old and wishes a boy who can go ahead and do team work under his directions without his being at hand.

Louis maintains his time is out in the fall of 1911 and wants to go home at that time.

Mrs. Sickles has a maternal care of over him and wishes him to remain with her always. Louis is content to remain until fall at least.

In case Louis is taken away they want a boy in his place.

Louis had a uniform suit sent him which was too small. The coat is still hanging in wardrobe unworn. Other clothes are needed and order has been sent in.

Some complaint is made about clothes not being sent when ordered.
