Mr. John Francis Jr.
Carlisle
Penn.

Nov. 29, 1917.

Dear Sir:

Thanking you for reminding me of the change made in the school paper, I shall very gladly send my subscription price, for I am all ways glad to get the paper. I only got the letter this morning with the paper, I may be late in sending the amount asked, but I will be entered without missing any of the paper.

It is too bad I did not receive your letter any earlier than I did, hoping to be entered on the roll I shall remain as ever your ex-student.

10. What other positions have you held since leaving Carlisle? None

11. Have you done anything for the betterment of your people? Write fully. I have not done anything amount to anything, all though I was selected to represent my tribe at the conference held by the Northern Calif. Indian Association, at which all representative plea for their own people, for betterment of the tribe. You may not have the least idea, in what condition we are in, and how we are treated after returning from school. For the reason why these Association have the conference is to try to bring up Indian leaders for the Indians.

These Indians of northern Calif. have no homes, and have poor chances of making living, therefore it is very hard for us under graduates to get any kind of position although we can get labor of some kind at times.

12. Tell me anything else of interest connected with your life

As a whole tribe is about to enter a new life. We are to enter into possession of land at the near future. This land was given us by the government through the Calif. Indian Association, Through my effort, I am very glad I can be of use to my tribe. This is all.
My name is not spelled right on this paper.
Robert, Parish is right.
