

Pendleton, Oregon. Nov, 19, 1912.

M Friedman, Supt;

Dear sir:-

I am utmost interested about the Carlisle school what he has training me, what very little I have received from the school, on account of my illness,

And I am doing my best to obtaining the education of Carlisle, and I am satisfied with the foundation has ed built on me ,and I am now married and have some children, and doing my best on this world to earn a good living,

But still I have beening drying to talk with some my friends and it is hard to sent them,

And I will hand that application blank to some one that I know that is wishing to go there.

Yours trueely.
