BRIDE A PRINCESS AND INDIAN GROOM OWNS HIS OWN AUTO

Civilization and the march of time have worked havoc with the tribal customs and ceremonies of the native Americans, as witness the appearance of John P. Jones, full-blooded Indian, clerk's office yesterday county afternoon to purchase a authorizing him to mate Mary Williams, a "princess of the tribe" according to Jones' statement to the good looking young lady who issued the license.

"We're both Indians," said Jones as he pocketed the license. "Do you think I'm crazy?" he asked, as he went out the door, but the young lady didn't tell him what she thought.

Then Jones stepped outside the courthouses, cranked up his big touring car and rambled off in just as much style as any of his more aristocratic white brothers would have done.

" Y AND E' ROCH.
