Dec. 11th, 1914.

Mr. Chas. E. De Corah,
Thurston, Nebraska.

My dear Sir:

Your kind letter of appreciation of what was done for you at Carlisle has been received. I thank you for it and for the information contained therein regarding yourself and the efforts you have made to be a useful citizen in your community.

I am pleased to know that you have devoted your time to farming. It is a splendid work and affords the very best opportunity for Indian young men to make use of their resources and their knowledge.

Wishing you success in your further efforts to be worthy of the belief your friends have in you, I remain,

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Supervisor  in Charge.
