Mr. John Pigeon,
Wittenberg, Wis.

Dear Friend:-

I was very glad to receive your record recently and to know of your continued progress. In case you desire to get into the Indian Service, I would suggest that you write a letter to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C., asking him for a blank which can be used for that purpose. The matter will then be referred to me for my recommendation, which I will give.

I am having your name placed on the complimentary list of THE ARROW.

Very sincerely yours,

MF:SR

Superintendent.
