Dear Sir:—

Received your letter + also the school catalogue, asking me where my brother Louis is, + in reply
will say, I do not know where Louis is at present.
The last time I heard from him was from Chicago.
I came here last spring + played ball here last summer.
+ am going home sometime this week.
I am,
Yours,
Joseph W. Loran,

My dear Sir:

In compliance with the request you conveyed to me on your card of recent date I am having one of the old issue of school catalogues mailed to you under a separate cover.

In a few days one of our circulars will be mailed to you asking you to send us information regarding yourself on a card that will be enclosed.

I am also anxious to find out where your brother Louis is now located and I would thank you to send me his address in the envelope I enclose.

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Superintendent.
