Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Cornelia seemed very melancholy when she first went to Mrs. Westwood's home. She took very little interest in either her surroundings or her duties. Her eyes gave considerable trouble. Mrs. Westwood took her to Dr. Fox and at last visit Cornelia seemed much improved. She has gained 32 lbs. She is a great reader and selects good books to read. She always has access to the home library. Is a part of the family in every respect. I think the Anting is the place for Cornelia. She needs individual attention to bring her out of herself.
