Carlisle, Pa.

My dear Mr. Friedman:

We may be strangers
in name and persons, but I am not a stranger to Carlisle
as I am one of the old timers who knows ~~every~~ nook of the place.

I write purposely to thank the person, who is so thoughtful & been sighted as to have the "Arrow," come to our humble home every week

ward to the

Arrow is to bring me more news of my old school home

I've tried to live up to the teachings of my school days since my returned home. Which are at times very hard.

I will now close with best wishes & success to the school and workers.

I am, as ever a faithful
Ex-Student,

My dear Friend:

I have your letter of November eighteenth, and was glad to hear from you. I adopted the policy three years ago of sending The Arrow to all of our returned students and graduates, whose address we have, as I felt it would be a bond between the students who are out in the world and their Alma Mater. It is a pleasure to know that you welcome the receipt of this paper.

I wish you continued success and hope that you will sometime find it possible to visit the school.

Sincerely your friend,

MF:SR

Superintendent.

Mr. John Francis Jr.
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

Received your greetings of Oct. 26, and must say I was happy to hear of the school I loved so dearly as a home.

It has been my intentions to write from times back but home duties compelled my silence.

As an ex student of the Carlisle school I have not been a failure in any way, as my husband is an ambitious, although he is not highly educated as some.

We are comfortable

in a good home as my one wish to have.
We have over fifty
heads of cattle and not so many of horses and one of the famous Fords.

I will double and
once over for what you
asked for some years back that I should have been a paid subscriber.

Best regards to all I know. I must close.

I remain as ever a friend,

I am,

Mrs. Susie B. Ryan
