Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 17th, I have to state that Gertrude Brought Plenty has reached home and is now with her guardian, Thomas Frosted. Louise Noheart also arrived at Wakpala.

Very respectfully,

My dear Sir:

I transmit herewith a bill that was submitted to me in May of last year. When it was brought to Gertrude Broughtplenty's attention she stated that she cannot pay it.

Although the debt was contracted without authorization from any one here and before I took charge of this school I believe that an effort should be made to settle the claim. If Gertrude's brother John can be of assistance the help will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of recent date with which was enclosed a bill for $5.25 due a photographer at Carlisle, for photographs furnished the sister of John Brought Plenty, in which connection you stated that the girl had no funds of her own and you felt that the bill was a just one and should be paid, and requested that I ascertain if her brother John could not assist her to settle this bill. In accordance with your wishes in this matter I took it up with her brother and am now enclosing a check in his favor for $5.63 endorsed payable to your order, with which to liquidate his sister's indebtedness, and the balance of 38 cents may be used for her benefit as you may deem proper. Her brother John wishes me to state that he does not approve of her action in contracting bills when she has no means with which to meet them.

Very respectfully,

Mr. Claude C. Covey,

My dear Sir:

Gertrude Brought Plenty, enrolled here from the Agency under your jurisdiction and who has been cared for at the House of Good Shepherd, Reading, Pennsylvania, since early last summer, has had but one dollar in money for personal expenses during all the time she has been absent from Carlisle and has evidently become discontented on account of a lack of funds. She does not have any money to her credit here and if funds are not available for her it is my opinion that her people should contribute a small amount for her personal use.

Will you co-operate with me in the matter and let me know what Gertrude may expect?

Very respectfully,

HKM.

My dear Friend:

This is to advise you that the letter you addressed to me on October the 13th is being referred to Supervisor Kneale, who is now in charge at the Standing Rock Agency. Just as soon as I hear from him what your people can do about sending the money you desire to use I will convey the information to you.

I am pleased to know that you and the other girls from this school are making such a determined effort to benefit by the training that is given you and that those who are assisting you are satisfied with the progress you are making. It was not an easy matter to take you away from Carlisle, but it seemed to be the only course to take to save you from becoming so entirely careless that later on nothing at all could be done to help you.

Hoping that I will have a favorable reply soon from Supervisor Kneale and that continued progress can be reported to me regarding you and the other girls from Carlisle,

My dear Sir:

Upon receipt of your favor of July the 29th arrangements were completed to take Gertrude Broughtplenty to the House of Good Shepherd, Reading, Pennsylvania, to which institution she was taken today.

An expenditure of $6.74 had to be incurred to take Gertrude to Reading and if she has any funds to her credit it seems only fair that she should pay the same from such funds.

I have learned that the Sisters in charge of the House of Good Shepherd accept contributions for the maintenance of their institution and I believe that any funds Gertrude may have should be used to pay for her care while she is away from Carlisle. Will you co-operate with me by reporting what resources she has and whether her funds could be used for the purpose stated?

Gertrude's name will be continued on our school rolls, so that I am in an official position at all times to give

My dear Friend:

Replying to your letter of February the 6th, in which you make inquiry about your sister Gertrude, I regret to advise that she became so unruly last summer that finally for her own protection she was taken to the House of Good Shepherd at Reading, Pennsylvania, a Catholic institution where wayward girls are cared for.

Gertrude seems to be getting along satisfactorily, but because she has not received any money from her people at home she has been handicapped in taking up the study of music which she has desired to do.

I am pleased to know you have been making an effort to do useful work since you left Carlisle, and I assure you no one can be more anxious to hear that you are doing well than I.

Dear Mr. Lipps:-

Sister M. St. Andrew Corsini gave me the following report of Gertrude Brought Plenty who was taken to the House of Good Shepherd Reading, Pa., August 4, 1914. I visited Gertrude on May 7, 1915.

Gertrude has rather an irresponsible character but on the whole is doing very well. She does not attend day school but is obliged to attend the evening school- regular academic work. She does exceptionally well in crocheting. Her work shows not one uneven stitch. She took up music but soon tired of it so has done very little with music. She also has received mail from Harold Bishop, Panama.

Gertrude looks well and contented. She tells me that she wants to stay where she is and Sister Corsini thinks it better not to allow her to go to her home for some time.

Very respectfully,

Lida M. Johnston.

My dear Sir:

Gertrude Broughtplenty has given us so much trouble lately that it has been decided she cannot be kept here any longer and I would be pleased to hear from you without delay in what way you can co-operate with me in arranging for the care of the girl.

She informed me several days ago that she attended a Catholic School before she came to Carlisle, and if you can be assured that she will again be controlled and restrained in such a school I shall not object to her leaving here for that purpose. Otherwise I shall take steps to have her committed to some reform institution.

It is my opinion that Gertrude should not be allowed to come home to do as she pleases there, and as she is a bad influence here just at this time I trust I shall hear from you soon.

My dear Sir:

In further reference to your letter of September the 25th, you are advised that Gertrude Brought Plenty is not showing any great improvement in her conduct at the place in Reading, Pennsylvania, where she is being restrained and that it has been decided to let her return home.

Arrangements can be made to have her leave here soon after the 15th of this month, but as she does not have any money with which to defray personal traveling expenses I believe that the Mr. Frosted who desires to have her at home should cooperate to the extent of sending an amount of not less than ten dollars for Gertrude's use.

No further action in the matter will be taken until I hear from you again.

My dear Sir:

In further reference to the matter of returning Gertrude Brought Plenty to her home on the Standing Rock reservation, this is to report that arrangements have been completed to release her from the House of Good Shepherd in which she has been cared for and that she will start this evening for her home. A ticket for her use to McLaughlin will be provided and an amount of $5.00 in cash is being advanced her to pay for incidental expenses enroute. She has a very small sum of her own which will also be given her for incidental expenses.

I would thank you to report to me when Gertrude has arrived at her home, so that our records in the case will be complete.

There is being enclosed herewith a copy of the night message that will be sent to you this evening.

Mr M. Freedman Supt.
Carlisle School
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

For fear a misunderstanding may arise
with reference to Gertrude Plenty I desire to acquaint you with the following facts.

Gertrude came to my home
last Sunday - about 6 P.M.
having been sent to me
by Miss Gallagher who conducts an employment agency and candy store in Lansdowne.

She remained until about

9.40 Later probably than your rules permits but to make sure that no harm would come to her my mother went with her the greater part of the way with her on her return to her home.

Gertrude came back the following afternoon stating she had been locked out the previous evening and as a result had been forced to seek shelter with Miss Gallagher for the night. At her request I consented to her remaining with me upon her statement that she had been again locked out at noon upon her return from school and that she had been without supper breakfast and lunch at her home. She appeared exceedingly anxious to immediately communicate with you and for that purpose I gave her stationary and stamps. She also wrote a letter to her mother.

That she had been locked out I know to be a fact as Mrs Penrock has so personally admitted me in the presence of a witness.

I consider that Gertrude has been subject to unnecessarily severe treatment at the hands of Mrs Pennock, by being successively locked out
in freezing cold weather,
and by your agent in refusing to allow her to finish her lunch with the family and myself and compelling Gertrude to depart immediately, a heartless proceeding.

In the haste of depar-

bracelet ^{case} & necktie,
These I will forward if you will kindly advise how ^{and where} they will reach her.

Sympathetic and humane consideration for Gertrude on the part of your agent found expression
in her repeated remarks that Gertrude's having been locked out "Served her right."

The short time Gertrude remained with me
I found her a lovable

girl. She spent most of the time in play
with my three children.
I am a Roman Catholic.
I own my own home
and can refer you to Mr C. N. Valentine, Justice
of Peace in E. Lansdowne and Mr F. C. Hoopes, Commissioner.

I wish to thank you for your letter of the 18th instant, giving your opinion of Gertrude Brought Plenty and her case, and the same will be placed on file for future reference in case there should be need for it.

I wish to say, however, that we have known Gertrude two years, and Mrs. Pennocka much longer time than that, she having had our girls in her home for several years, so that it is perfectly natural for us to believe that we are quite familiar with the situation. However, I am glad to have your opinion in the matter.

Again thanking you, I remain,
