Dear friend:

I make one more effort to try to get balance due Myrtle Evans. The little girl feels badly to have to lose her money, and repeated efforts fail to get any response, even, from you or Mrs Priestman. Myrtle came to the office yesterday and said "If you will write to Mr Priestman, I think I can get the money". Failing in this there will be no longer delay in placing the matter in the hands of a collector. In such cases, the debtor, as you know, likely, pays the costs. The amount is $14.65.

Very truly yours

Supt. Carlisle Pa

Dear Sir:

Your letter of June 24th made me feel as if Carlisle was still interested in me.

I am married to George Peake a member of the Class 1902. We are getting along fairly well now
but have had many
a hard battle.

my husband is working for the Minneapolis

Gas light Co. as a gas fitter.
We have a little boy 2 years old.

We have a house in a good resident district and have transformed our back yard
into a vegetable garden.

Thanking you for the kind remembrance. I am your school daughter

I wish you continued happiness and success.
