Mr. M. Friedman.
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir: It is a great pleasure indeed to note the interest you have taken in the Carlisle student, it seems so different from what it use to be.

I have all ways felt hard towards Carlisle because I was not allowed to graduate, Col. Pratt would not hear my story and I was sent home, when in two weeks I could have had my diploma, but that is past and

I suppose I should forget it.

Your letters have been very kind and cheerful, and I am really very much ashamed that I have not written before.

I have had but one disappointment and that one, I just cannot forget. I did want my diploma so badly, but they thought best to deprive me of it.

My lot has been a very cheerful and happy one. I have a very good husband, and I have every thing in my home that I could wish for.

We have both worked very hard, to get a start, but now that we are out of debt, I do only my own house work, the rest of my time is put into books

and magazines. (good ones)

There are six of us Carlisle pupils here in Aberdeen and Glasgow, and we do enjoy being together so much.

I enjoy the Arrow very much.

Thanks to you for same.

I hear that there is such a change at Carlisle that I would hardly know it. It seems a shame that you were not put in charge years ago.

Thanking you for your kind
interest in me.

With best wishes for your success.

A returned pupil.

Cynthia Lambert Almaden.
