Mrs Wallace Denny
Carlisle. Pa.

Dear Mrs. Denny:

Since your visit through this country I have been aiming to write and ask you not to forget me next time you come for I did want to see ~~and~~ talk with some one fresh from old Carlisle so much and really felt like a disappointed child when I found out you were gone.

However I have made efforts to cause some of the boys from here to go to Carlisle informing them that I was but a poor example of what Carlisle could do for the Indian and feel so glad because some of them have taken their chance to make something of themselves.

I am keeping house here at the Sub Agency for my husband is the Sub Agent at this Station

I have one little girl six years old with blue eyes and she is attending the public school here in town.

Kindly remember me to Wallace for I know must he will remember me for I was his classmate for some time.

I am with kind regards.

Mrs. Laura Barker Birdseye
