Dear friend,

I received your letter this evening and was glad to hear from you.

I am well and happy, hope you are the same.

I am sorry to say I could not answer the other letter as I did not have the time at all.

My brother Isaac Cooke sends his best regards to his friends, and also you. I was expecting to go away this winter and work for my self. I have not made up mine to come back at all to school. I am sorry to say David Jacobs is going to get married too Julia Terrance they are both Carlisle students.

Well I think it is about time
I ought to close as I am going to get supper now.

I suppose you know Addie Gray
she is going to get married too
Thomas La France, before Xmas or New Year's.

I will enclose now.

Best regards to my friends.
