Please pardon me for not answering your questions any sooner, I have been very busy hoeing the corn, so you see I am not idle at present. I am thankful for how much I learned while I was at Carlisle school,

I am glad that I have little piece of land so that I can plant my potatoes and such things as we need, the crops are doing fine out this way. We are having great deal of rain too at present. My husband is clerking in the dry goods store, he has been clerking there for five years.
