We have a baby, eleven months old who requires careful attention every day.

William's parents are getting old and they need our help, for this reason we are staying at home very close.

Dear Mrs Denny:-

We received the kind invitation to attend the commencement this year, but we have decided that we could not very well come this year.

Our children are both so small. Our girl is running around now but our little boy is only three months old and I think the trip would be too much for them.

I am especially anxious to come for it does not only mean to see "Carlisle" and old friends but that part of the country is still home to me. Every letter I get from home they are wishing that I might come back for a visit.

The "Red Man" comes every week and we are always glad to read it.

Some day we may be able to come back to see our old friends and teachers. I will close with best wishes. I am

Yours Sincerely
"Elizabeth L Corbett."
