Nothing else of interest connected with your life:

I got your letter last week
and now I am going to answer it.

I am always delighted to hear from the old school and to know how it getting along.

I see in the paper that the hero of the Olympic games is James Thorne of Carlisle I am very proud to <sup>tell</sup> any one that comes in that James was a school mate of mine.

I am always glad to tell about
the school to any one.

My husband & I are both ex-students of Carlisle and often talk about our happy days there.

2

We have a sweet-little boy that may also see Carlisle some day as we did.

My husband works in Rosemary Creamery here, he gets $2.00 a week and some times I make five dollars &
other times <sup>make</sup> $6.00

I hope that all the Carlisle <sup>students</sup> are doing well.

We have 39 chickens to sell
this fall and Sam is going to get more.

With kind regards & Best-Wishes.

I remain your friend

Dear Friend:-

I read your record of recent date with interest, and am glad to know of your nice home. Sometime when you have an opportunity, I hope that you will have a photograph taken of it and send a copy to me.

I am having your name put on the complimentary list for THE ARROW.

Very sincerely yours,

MF:SR

Superintendent.

In a happy letter from Mrs. Louisa C. Brown, whose husband and herself are both ex-students of Carlisle, she tells of a "nice little home in the village of Adams, New York." Her husband is employed in a creamery, and, she herself, often makes four and five dollars a week. They also own a home in Franklin County, N. Y., to which they expect

Mrs. Samuel Brown (nee Louisa Chubb) who went home last June, writes from Madrid, N. Y., to one of her friends saying that she is getting along very nicely and expects to go to house-keeping in the near future. She also mentions Theressa Brown, now Mrs. Ransom, as being one of her neighbors.
