A Student Twenty-six Years Ago.

Mary Tyndall Mitchell, an Omaha ex-student, returned to Carlisle after an absence of 26 years, bringing a party of Winnebagoes and Omahas, among whom was her son. She noted many changes and improvements, but seemed glad to see some buildings as she had known them. A happy coincident brought her here at the same time as Miss Cutter, whom she recognized as the only one who was here 26 years ago. Mrs. Mitchell is now official interpreter at the Agency Office on the Omaha Reservation.
