November 6, 1917.

Mrs. Louisa J. Hill Bowler, Wisconsin.

Dear Madam:-

Your letter asking to enrol your daughter Ethel who is now living at Collings-wood, N. J. has been received and turned over to Miss Johnston, the outing agent, who will see your daughter and decide whether she is to be enrolled. Miss Johnston leaves for the outing field tomorrow.

I will let you know what is done in Ethel's case later.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.
