Dear Sir

I was very glad to get~~ter~~ letter from Carlisle, I was to Carlisle 7 years and I am very glad I went there. I did not even know how to talk English, now we don't talk Indian at all at home (I got 3 children one the boy is 10 years old and the girls is 9 and 7 years old, two of them goes to Oneida Boarding School, my children writes to me every week) they don't know how to talk Indian So I am to be thankfull what Carlisle School done for me) I never went to other school, when I came back I only knew A, B, C, when I went there. (I got married 2 months after I come home and we get along very nice) ~~the~~^{we} don't drink no strong drinks. I will be very glad to get them papers from Carlisle every week this is all.

Mrs. Belinda Cornelius, who was at Carlisle several years ago, writes Mr. Friedman as follows; "I was at Carlisle seven years and I am very glad I went there. I did not know how to talk English then. I have three children, the boy is eleven years old and girls are nine and seven. Two of them go to the Oneida Boarding School and I hear from them once a week. I am very thankful for what Carlisle has done for me. I was married two months after I came home and we get along very nicely."
