We have a small house near Mitchell's mother's place, and he is doing a little farming of our own. He is taking care of his mother who is now 73 years old. His mother has two cows and we have one cow and a horse. A farm about 60 acres. I was glad to hear from you and knowing that I am remembered by the dear old school of Carlisle. Often thinking of old Carlisle I get homesome to see it again. I certainly use to like to go to school at Carlisle. I use to think it was just like to home, how happy I used to be while being there. I was was treated well all around!

I had a good country home while out in the country. I am thankful that God is so good that he always gives me a good home, every where I go. I hope we all remember our good heavenly father every day. I know I do. I hope God will bless us in time to come. I always remember Carlisle I shall never forget the good it did for me. This is all.

Respectfully
Mrs Jane S. Stevens.
