Hewins Kas.

Mem. 2745

Brother are loyal.

The two Hutchinson boys
of Hewins Kas. sons
of Mr & Mrs Grant Hutchins
and members of the Osage tribe have invested
$2,000 each in the Third
Liberty loan.

These boys not only show
their loyalty and patriotism
but their good judgment
in investing their money
in a sound and safe
proposition.

We are proud of these young men.

Charles age 14 Carlis age 12.

Mrs. Susie L. Hutchison writes to Mr. Friedman from Hewins, Kans., that she is living with her husband on a large well-stocked ranch. They have five children, two of whom are attending the Osage Boarding school; the others, who are still quite small, are at home. Three years ago Mr. and Mrs. Hutchison lost a beautiful home through fire, but they expect to rebuild in April.

Susie P. Hutchinson, ex-student, now married and living on a farm at Hewins, Kansas, writes to Mrs. Canfield that she has five fine, bright children. The two oldest are at boarding school at Pawhuska, where she has just been to visit them. She says she often thinks of the students and employees at Carlisle, and wonders what became of some of her chums. She inquires particularly about Margaret Freemont.
