Gentlemen:

I hold a receipt numbered 82927 from the Post Office at Carson City, Michigan, for $29.94, sent to you on the 2nd of April by Mrs. Mary Ettawegeshik with an order for coat, dress and shoes.

She claims she received the shoes costing $4.98, but has not received the coat and dress, although she has written you several times.

Will you please let me know what you will do regarding the money, $23.96, which is still due this young woman.

Mrs. Ettawegeshik is an old student of this school and at present has a son here. For these two reasons she has appealed to me to help her regain her money. I have written her that your reliability is beyond question and that you will see that she gets her money.

Very truly yours,

D:R
