

Miss Fannie Charley, ex-student, writes from Galena, Kansas, as follows: "I receive my ARROW every week, and cannot express how much joy it brings me. I have been here in Galena four months keeping house for my uncle, who had the misfortune of losing his wife in June last. I often wish I were at Carlisle among my former acquaintances and amid the beautiful surroundings there. There are no ex-Carlislars anywhere around here that I know of. Remember me to all my friends and especially the Class of 1912. I wish them the best success all through life."

In a letter written from Mount Airy, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Fannie R. Charley, an ex-student, says: "I enjoyed the Penn-Indian game very much and was glad to see so many of my old friends and school-mates there. I have gained eleven pounds since my arrival in the East.
