Dear Friends:-

I received your kind invitation to attend your meeting and The Commencement Exercises at "dear old Carlisle." How I would have enjoyed it, but it is a pleasure that I am unable to avail myself of. I am sorry to say. I have never forgotten the dear old school days, and am always proud to read of the success of its pupils. May the school always prosper, the best of luck thru life.

Sincerely Your old friend and schoolmate.
