Mr. John Francis Jr.
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Friend:-

I received your letter dated Jan 3 in which you stated you have entered my subscription for the Snow & red man on your regular mailing list. Thank you. And still you are wondering what my name was when I were a pupil at Carlisle. It seems like a dream to me that I was at one time a pupil of dear old Carlisle under the fatherly care of dear Capt. R. H. Pratt - twenty five years ago. and on the school roll as Mary Jane Wren and now as Mrs. Albert Goss. with a family of four children, three daughters & one son. Time has shifted by but still I feel as young in heart as I did in those days gone by. I often look back to my school days at Carlisle with pleasure. I never regretted the short stay at dear old Carlisle. I hope some day I may be able to visit my old school home.

I will close with best wishes to you +
the school

Your friend
