Miss Etta Saracino,
Paquate, New Mexico.

August 16th, 1910.

My dear Miss Etta:

I have received your letter of August the 11th, saying that you have decided to take a nurses' training course in the St. Joseph's Hospital at Albuquerque. I am glad you have chosen such an important profession and I extend you my very best wishes for success.

The nurses' training course is a difficult one and it will require good hard work to master it, but it is worth striving for and I want you to put forth your best efforts to make a success of it.

I enclose you herewith a note of commendation, which tells about your record while you were enrolled at Carlisle. If there is anything more we can do to assist you or to encourage you in your work, do not hesitate to write to me. We want you to feel that this school is always back of you to render such assistance as it may be possible to give.

Again with best wishes, I remain,

Your friend,

HKM.

Superintendent.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to commend to you Miss Etta Saracino, who was enrolled as a student at Carlisle from Nov. 6th of 1904 to June 20th of 1910.

Miss Etta made a splendid record while enrolled at this school, both while in actual attendance at the school and while she lived at the homes of representative white people under our Outing System. She was always an earnest worker and of pleasing personality, and I believe that she is well fitted to take up the work she has selected for a profession.

She has had about one year's experience in our school hospital and has sufficient knowledge of the work of a nurse to enable her to realize what a difficult work there is before her and how much effort is required to complete the course of training.

I believe she will appreciate what can be done to assist her in acquiring the knowledge she desires.

HKM.

Superintendent.
