Dear Mrs Denny
I often think of writing to you. I wonder if you remember me. I use to be your scholar in the normal room. and I often think and talk of you as my dear teacher.
I didn't know you were still at dear old Carlisle. all the people in this little village went to church, and this evening some of them went prayer meeting we have a nice preacher, and his wife is very nice to. Well, we had rain this after-noon we have rain most every other day this year. I think we are going to have lots of fruit this year. last year we had very poor crops. lots of the people are passing by here they are going to their sheep ranches they are getting ready to shear sheep now. Next Monday is my baby's birthday she will be a year old. she is learning to walk.

Dear Mrs Deary ~~you~~ must close now I am so glad to write to you. to night I will have to put the kids to bed. well good bye with love from your friend

Dear old teacher

I should have answered your letter long ago, but I was and am still very busy. cleaning up my house. you see I have large family, and my brother came home with very sore finger, he got it smashed in a machine. he works in a ice house. I suppose you know James Piarsand, he is my brother then I had to nurse him his hand ^{was} swollen. I never thought my letter would find you still at dear old Carlisle. we are having fine weather. we have more rain this year than last year. and I think we are going to have better crops to. this year.

Well it is almost time for the mail to go. so I will have to hurry up now do you remember Mildred? she died two weeks ago with baby. No. Mrs Denny I did not get the Catalog please excuse my writing I don't know what is the matter with this ink it flouts. I will send you my baby's picture it is not so very good, but it is the only one have left. I wish I could see that picture that you have of us when you write to Lydia Flint. Give my love to her please excuse my poor writing, with love from your friend
