Dear Mr Friedman, when I was at Carlisle I got sent home by Colonel Pratt and some one told a false story about me I was out in the country working for Mrs Rachel C Larkin Kennett Square Pa and just before the students were to go back to school she reported to Carlisle that I stole eight dollars in money and some other thing about Colored man and of course Mr Pratt punished me for it and never even tried to find out whether it was true. Now Mr Friedman I wish to tell you that this was not true I suppose the record of this is at Carlisle that's why I ~~may~~ never wanted to answer those blanks cause I know Colonel Pratt has done a great wrong or my country mother either one of the two. I am innocent of the charge. I would tell you to day if it was true, but I am innocent It makes me think that a good many students was served in the same way but you see we could not help our selfs we had to do what ever Col. Pratt said whether we were innocent or not so please excuse me for not answering you before it is all over this matter. But I will always praise Carlisle because what I know to day is what I found out at Carlisle

Mrs. Maude Neffau,

My dear Madam:

In reply to your letter of October the 23rd, I take pleasure in stating that your sister, Hazel Cooper, is now here at school and that she is getting along very well. She spent the summer months at one of our Outing Homes and was returned to Carlisle with the other girls who came in to take up the work of the school year which began on September the 2nd.

Our school Matron has been directed to bring your inquiry to Hazel's attention and to ask her to write to you without delay.

Hoping that you will hear from Hazel and that a similar report will be made by her direct, I am,

Very truly yours,

HKM.
