Dear Madam:-

I have your inquiry regarding Salina Turkey, a pupil of this school at one time. Salina is a married woman, 27 years of age and has not been connected with the school for the past nine years. Until about three weeks ago, she and her husband lived with one of our employes, Mr. Miller, who has a farm near this school. Mr. Turkey farmed and Salina kept house for herself and husband.

Salina is strong, intelligent and I think capable but Mr. Miller does not speak very favorably of her as a worker. She is inclined to be indolent, he says.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Superintendent Carlisle School-

Dear Sir-

Selina Turkey,
a pupil of your school, has applied to me for work in my home. I believe she went with a lady to Eaglesmead and is now ready to leave there and come to me.

Would you be good enough to tell me something about the girl? I have two small babies (3 mos and another two years) and I want a trust worthy person to help me care for them as well as assist in the home
with cooking cleaning etc.

He can give a good home to the right sort of girl and when I travel Salways take my self. She spends the winter in Florida and late spring & early fall at the shore.

I want a girl at once to go to the mountains with me and this girl has written me that she is in Swanda N.Y. without funds and if I will advance her fare she will come to me. But before doing this I want to know something about her. Is she clean, honest capable, and trustworthy.

Thanking you greatly for a prompt reply as I want to leave Phila. Sat. next I am sincerely
