Mr. R. B. Hutchinson,
Checotah, Oklahoma.

My dear Sir:

I have noted the contents of the communication you transmitted to me with your letter of September the 22nd. It is being returned to you herewith.

I have learned from our school banker that Mr. House left an amount of $33.00 for Mattie Derrisaw's use and that she has not handed in a request for any of it. Oscar has less than ten dollars to his credit and Beeley none at all.

In this connection I will state that there is no objection at all to your sending about fifty dollars each for the use of the Derrisaw children. They have been provided with all necessary articles of clothing and any amounts you send for their use can only be expended under supervision for such extras as they may wish to procure for themselves from time to time. An excessive expenditure of funds by students enrolled here is always discouraged, but there is no reason why your wards should not have a liberal allowance if the same is handled thru the office of our school banker.

The Derrisaw children are getting along very nicely, and to date it seems that Oscar has made the best progress. He has quite a command of English and we have reasons to believe that he will be greatly benefitted by continuing with his school work. Beeley seems to be more quiet than Oscar, but is also acquiring a knowledge of English and is learning how to apply himself in industrial work.

Very truly yours,

HKM.
