Mrs. Fleety Payne Donaldson, be the beginning of a closer Afton, Okla. between this school and yours.

My dear Madam: may keep in touch with your progress, I remain,

It gives me much pleasure to acknowledge receipt of the very interesting information you conveyed to me on one of our record blanks under recent date. How gratifying it is to know that you have made such a success of your life and that the training given you at Carlisle has helped you to make it.

In order that you may learn something about our work during the past several years I am sending you some of our school literature under a separate cover. If any other particulars are desired I will be pleased to hear from you.

The Mrs. Carrie Weekley Roberts you refer to in your communication can be reached by addressing her at Coosawhatchie, South Carolina, and I regret to add that Mrs. Edith Smith Haffner's death was re-
