Miss Jeannette V. Redwing,

Santee, Knox. Co., Nebraska.

My dear Friend:

I have your letter of March the 2nd and I thank you for the kind wishes you conveyed thereby. It is to be regretted that you cannot pay us a visit during the time of our coming Commencement Week exercises, but it is hoped that you can arrange to come here some more convenient time.

I am complying with your request by mailing you a copy of our school catalogue under a separate cover. The last pages contain a list of the graduates and of their occupations when last heard from, which will probably be of interest to you.

Extending best wishes for your own continued success, I am,

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir -,

I surely am much pleased and welcome to receive your invitation to attend the commencement exercises or to the Alumni meeting.

Am certain that I would enjoy both exercises and meeting.

But am sorry I cannot attend, so, I will simply just give thanks to you, for your invitation.

I would very gladly come and visit dear old Carlisle once again, for the help and education it gave me.

Am sure, I wouldn't ever forget Carlisle and have often times, wished myself back.

It has been many years since I returned home from Carlisle, that it just seems I really have forgotten Carlisle.

Our winter here at Sauter, has been rather like spring, as we haven't had real cold wintry days, such as blizzards.

But we are likely to have blizzards this month, for, from what we know of not having the real coldest days.

Remember me to my old friends and class-mates.

Will now close my letter, by sending my congratulations to those who graduate this Spring.

Also wish them all, a happy and a long life in future.

good by, from an ex-student.

Jeanette W. Redwing.

If you please sir, I would like you to send to me one of the Carlisle cataloges, if any.

I would be thankful for one,
in memory of Carlisle.
